TCAM Adds Four New Employees in Major Expansion

BOSTON, MA – TCAM announced today the expansion of its staff in connection with a new long-term asset management engagement. Sonya Prear, Veronica Gominho, Christopher Osborne and Susan Symington joined TCAM effective July 1. All four individuals have extensive experience in multifamily housing, including affordable housing, most recently at John Hancock Realty Advisors, Inc. (“JHRA”).

TCAM’s staffing expansion follows its engagement by JHRA to provide long-term asset management services for the JHRA housing tax credit portfolio. TCAM will provide on-going asset management services, including financial and compliance monitoring, data management, site inspections, and dispositions and watchlist management. The JHRA portfolio includes 118 properties in 27 states across the country.

The JHRA engagement is TCAM’s most recent assignment. TCAM is currently providing asset management and advisory services for other investors and capital providers, including owners, syndicators, banks, insurance companies, corporations and state and local housing agencies.

“We are pleased that Sonya, Veronica, Chris and Susan have joined TCAM,” said TCAM Chief Executive Officer Jenny Netzer. “They bring excellent skills and long experience in housing tax credits and multifamily housing. With their help, we can continue to provide clients with comprehensive and cost-effective services across a range of portfolios and issues.”
