TCAM Announces New Engagement with LIHTC Syndicator

BOSTON, MA – TCAM, a leading investment manager for the affordable housing industry, today announced a new engagement with a syndication firm. TCAM will be assessing property issues to help the client expedite resolution and ensure continued performance for investors.

This engagement is the most recent assignment for TCAM from a major housing tax credit equity investor. TCAM is currently providing asset management and owner's representation services for several investors, syndicators and owners as well as for banks, insurance companies, corporations and state and local housing agencies. "We are pleased to help another client expand its capacity and work through issues in its portfolio," said TCAM Chief Executive Officer Jenny Netzer. "As a flexible resource, TCAM can help clients meet immediate needs without adding overhead."
